Uncertainty.

Proof can be obtained.

Each can communicate with departed spirits, if they will follow the teachings of Science, proof of which is absolute.

THIS Instrument will intensely interest you, and rest assured, it will prove that you can communicate with the dead.

¶ When you are putting together very delicate articles you are sure to be careful not to destroy any of the parts.

¶ When you begin to investigate a subject that will immensely repay you for the time and trouble, it will be readily understood that obedience to the known law is imperative, the directions enclosed with each instrument, if followed, will certainly bring about the result sought for.

¶ When you have obtained satisfactory proof, will you confer a decided favour upon others by asking them to try the "Spirit Communicator" and also give them the result of your experience. Many will doubt the possibility of such a discovery until they have tried the instrument for themselves or seen it tried by others.

¶ Our chief aim is to make it possible for all to know that when the body is laid aside the spirit continues to live, and is able to make its presence known by the use of the Telepathic Spirit Communicator. When passing into the other life, our relationship, friendship, or our personality, cannot change, and a desire to make it known that they still live is eagerly sought for by our departed relatives and friends.

¶ We have devoted much time and experiment in producing this wonderful yet simple instrument, in the hope that all may be able to become re-united again with their loved ones, who have gone but a little while before and still live in affectionate remembrance of us.

¶ The Instrument is well made and will last a lifetime, and the price is reduced to a minimum, so as to make it accessible to all.
