Farr Alpaca Co.,

Holyoke, Mass.

Gentlemen:-

We wrote you a few weeks ago, also mailed you several pamphlets, calling your attention to the Rem-Sho Typewriter, and having received no reply, take the liberty of again addressing you on the same subject.

Knowing that you are purchasing new typewriters from time to time, and, that you are desirous of having the best, we ask again that you allow us the privilege of demonstrating the superiority of the Rem-Sho.

If you have an old machine which you would like to trade in as part pay on a new Rem-Sho, give us the name and number of it, and we will make you a proposition that will be satisfactory.

We would thank you for a reply to this letter stating whether you are in the market for a new typewriter at the present time, and if not, when you expect to be. We have no desire to bore you with letters and advertising matter, but we do want your Business, believing that you will pardon our persistency after purchasing a Rem-Sho.

Yours truly,

Remington-Sholes Company,

A. L. Fierlein Aud.
